GEO. D. PRENTICE, Editors. OLIVER LUCAS, Local Editor and Reporter. TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1862. THE SPIRIT OF THE GOVERNMENT AND THE

SPIRIT OF THE REBELLION -It will be of no small assistance, in determining which party in this civil war is engaged in the cause of justice, to consider for a moment the spirit which s sems to actuate the parties, and the different fruits which they have brought forth. When cither individuals or societies are benevolent and magnanimous in their conduct, we readily believe that their principles are correct, while, upon the other hand, malevolence and brutality always uppear to us as the manifestations of the very spirit of cvil. The friends of the Government have no reason to shun a comparison between its general course and that of the rebel confoderacy. The first cannot fail to win the secret admiration of its foes, the latter cannot hut bring shame to all its Intelligent friends. Look at the regard shown by each to the rights of persons. There is no freedow of speech in the revolted States. It is notorious that no man, not even the most exalted spirit of the land, is suffered to oppose the Confederate cause, in that section, or to withstand the policy of its masters, or advocate the restoration of the old dominlon. No newspaper proclaiming such doctrine is tolerated there. Johnson, Etheridge, and Brownlow are hanted down and driven from the horders of Dixie for the sole crime of ndvocating Unionism. Now look on the other side. Thousands of persons within the jurisdiction of the Federal Government are apologizing for and defending the rebels and denouncing the Government, and yet are living monuments of its forhearance. Hundreds of secession speeches have been made in strong Union communities in Missouri and Kentucky at the very time when no man could have made a Union speech in the seceding States, without losing his life, or heing thrown into a dungeon. The Government has been tolerant, the rebels have been latitude to both spoken and printed treason the latter have persecuted with undying their conduct. No Unionist is suffered to speak in Richmond or Memphis or New Orleans as disunionists are allowed to speak in New York and Washington. Look at the jurisdiction owned by loyal men. Nay, more, viow of the whole country.

e various Confederate Stato Legislatures have denounced heavy penalties against all Southern men who shall pay their Northern debts and comply with their plighted faith, thus, hy this monstrous chactment, making ful apprehension of the advance of the Federal An effort will be made to raise the deficit of it a crime to be honest. Millione of public property has perished needlessly in their hands. In the very wantonness of destruction they have fired poblic edifice, blown up tunnels, burned bridges, sunk steamhoats, destroyed railroad cars, undermined and torn up railroad tracks, on which hundreds of millions of money and years of labor had heen employed, not for any proportionate benefit which they might derive from such destruction, but simply to gratify the spirit of blind and demoniac revenge. They have overthrown, in their frenzy, many of the noblest monuments of public enterprise. They have deso-Inted not the territory of their enemies only, but of their own friends, in many instances, with ravages which a generation cannot re-

Governments is seen in their conduct towards European Governments. Tho federal Government, adhering firmly to the counsel of the Father of his Country to avoid entangling alliances with foreign powers, and knowing how little armony can exist between democracy and espotism, has not coorted the intervention and alliance of Governments abroad in our civil war. It has acted as though it deemed would be little less than sacrilege to suffer, much more invite, a priest from a royal temple td' lay hls hands upon the precious vessels on the shrine of the American repub lic. It has scorned the thought of making world. Now attend to the course of the Condefetes in this matter. From the beginning heir highest hopes on the action of despotic Governments, and, most of all, on the action of that Government which has ever manifested the greatest jealoney and hatred of our insti tntions. They have sent commissioners to stand as fawning suppliants at the doors of the British nobility and crouch as humble petioners at the feet of royalty. They have even shamelessly avowed to the world that, rather than fail in their enterprise, they would come as provinces under a foreign protectorate and gladly take upon their necks the iron might have been fatal. yoke which their fathers indignantly rejected It is passing wonderful that men who were wont to be so scrnpulously punctilious ahont the constitution are ready to sacrifice every member of that constitution to win the favor of its ancient cnemies. In Teunessee, Mississippi, Lonisinna, Alahama, &c., they have been collisting thirty days' men and ninety days' men for the armies at Bewling Greon and Columbus. These thirty and ninety days' men, we are very sure, will find themselves hadly sold. Most or all of them will want to get away at the expivarious kinds of positive restraint.

There are persons among us, who while expecting and demanding the protection of the constitution and laws of the United States, beast that the Mason and Slidell transaction is a disgrace to our country and openly rejoico thereat. THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS -It has been currently rnmored for some time that the public schools of the city would be discontinued at an early day, vatious reasons having been assigned for the ovement. All such rumors are nawerranted, At a meeting of the Board of School Trustees last evening the attention of the board was called by Dr. Holland to the fact of the existence of these rumors, and a free expression of the sentiment of the members was the result. We feel authorized to state that the idea of discoutinuing the cl'y schools has never been advanced, or entertained even, by a single memher of the board, nor will they be discontinued during the present cholastic year in any contingeucy that can arise in the probable course of events. According to the report of the Finance Committee and the Secretary of the board, the echools have never at any former period in their history experienced greater prosperity in all respects than thay enjoy at the present time.

SENATE. Mr. Nesmith presented the credentials of Ben Mr. Nesmith presented the credentials of Benj. Stark, who was appointed Senator to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Senator Baker.

Mr. Fessenden moved that the administration of the cash be euspended for the present, and the credeutials of Mr. Stark, together with certain papers which he beld in his (Mr. Fessenden's) hands, be referred to the Judiciary Committee. The papers were wall attested by many of the most respectable portion of the inhabitan's of Portland. He (Fessenden) had exemine the pepers with deliberation, and therefore made

Mr. Bright said that there was no precedent for euch a motion. He never keew of a case where a Senetor hed been refused the oath. He thought that the Senntor had better be sworn, and then let the Senete take cognizance of the latter Probably baser falsehoods had never been offered than those in regard to himself, which had been than those in regard to himself, which had been eent to the Senate. He had in his pockst a copy of the Naw York Herald, where it was stated that he (Bright) was a Brigadier General in the rabel arms. rebel army.

Mr. Fessenden said it was true there was not a procedent, but the state of the country was without a precedent and we had now to make a precedent. The papers in reference to Mr. Stark were well attested by his neighbors and towns-Mr. Bayard thought the case had better go over till to-morrow, that the Senate might have time to look into it.

Mr. Trumbull eaid the case was not without precedent and referred to the case of Mr. Lar um, of Connecticut, where the credentials wer ferred; and also to the case of Mr. Griswold, o hio, where the credentiale were also refarred.
Mr. Sumner said the case was unprecedented,

He were auxious for a result.

Mr. Line thought that "sufficient for the day was the evil thereof." When the other case comes up, the Senate will be ready to vote. There could be no difference of epinion in regard to the present war by any patrict.

The came informant says that the rolling-stock on the Tennessee railroade are very much out of repair, and the necessary material for repairing them cannot be obtained.

The cardenlials of Mr. Stark and the paper. could be no difference of opinion in regard to the present war by any patriot.

The credentials of Mr. Stark and the papers barded in by Mr. Fessenden were then laid on the table for the present.

Mr. Wilson presented a petition from citizene f Pennsylvania that John C. Fremont be apointed Lieu'enant-General. Mr. Wilson alsoresanted n petition in reference to General Mc Kinstry, representing that he was confined in prison closely in violation of the rules of war.

In the course of his (Mr. Conklin's) remarks, he aid, the government is spending $2,000,000 pe ay. With over 600,000 men in the field, when er we have mede an advance we have been or ered and ignominiously defeated, and yot the ase and the country are denied the right wing who are responsible. If we cannot have amnity for the past, in the name of humanit indomnity for the past, in the name of humanity let us have seenrily for the future. Let us know who is responsible for the disgraceful disaster at Ball's B'uff. He eaid, after the publication of Adjutant General Themse's roport relative to General Fremont, certainly no publication of any thing connected with army should be suppressed. Mr. Conklin was very eavere and pointed in his comments. He offered a preamble reciting the recolution proviously adopted and the response, concluding with a resolution that the number to this neither responsive nor suitsfactory to the t is neither responsive ner entisfactory to the loure, and that the Secretary of War be direct ed to return a further answer.

Mr. Richardson said he was opposed to the whole resolution. It was a subject with which they had nothing to do, and the sooner they opped the preceedings, the better for the ountry.
Mr. Crittenden thought the Ilouse had no power under the Constitution to enquire into matters purely military. The army is under the command of the President, who is respensible for its operations. To interfere with theory wou to en attempt to extend our civil juriepridence. Even if we had the right to make our en inquiry, did not public policy forbid it? Coulo war ha successfully conducted on such a princi ple? If faults have been committed they are to Clallan. We had better weaken our army then wasken confidence in the General in Chief. As army of beare led by a lion is more to be dreaded than an army of lione led by a bear. Mr. Corklin further explained the cliject and urpose of his resolution. Replying to Mr. Crittenden—

Mr. Vallandigham eaid be would at all time naintain the subordination of the military to the ivil authority. The Ilritish Parliament has xercised the right of inquiry into the conduct of the Crimean war, but here the Secretary or ni by the Ilcuse, and it was now too late to com plain of it.

Mr. Lovejoy entered his protest against the principle enunciated by the gentleman from Kentucky, having always believed that the militery should be enbordinate to the civil power. We are waiting in the fruitless hope that the re'bellion will put i'self down. The idea is, that if we don't hart anybody, the rebels would return to their allegisters.

ANOTHER REBEL ACCOUNT OF THE AFFAIR AT DRANESVILLE .- Mr. Charles D. Kirk, late of this city, wrote the Richmond Di petch as follows on the 21st alt, from the camp near Centre

An affair with the enemy occurred yesterday, the 20th fast, at Dreneavillo, that will probably be magnied by the enemy as a real battle. It was so in latensity and violence, and the casualties demonstrate that it was a more betty contested field than is the small record of history. It was ordered yesterday morning that four regiments of Infantry—the 1st Kentucky, 6 h South Carolina, 11 h Virginis, end 10th Alahama—should report to Gen. Steart on the outposts. We rendezvoused in Contraville at 3 o'clock in the merving, at durder the genial infuences of a brilliant winter morn marched eastward toward the Potomac. On the ronte we were joined by Curte's hattery, and accompanied by cavalry companies forming Gen Stuart's each.

Af er a long and fatiguing march, mostly at quick time, we found enresives in the vicinity of the enemy. The regiments were order deroward at double quick, and in a hrief period the discharge of arilliery and the hursting of bombia.
